

The following table illustrates the expected information per topic:

Topic	Description
Access to the culture of the host country/language courses	Information provided on intercultural behavior, tourism, researchers' evenings, cultural visits and sport facilities and social activities.
Accommodation	Assistance provided in finding a place to stay or live in, also general information linked to housing formalities (lease, rent, deposit, rights and obligations, etc.)
Banking	Information/assistance provided concerning the opening of a bank account.
Career Development	Information/assistance provided concerning career development opportunities at the hosting country.
Day care, schooling & family related issues	Information/assistance provided to a researcher and the family on schools (nurseries, Kindergartens, primaries, ...) child's care at home (babysitting, etc.)
Departure conditions/formalities	Information/assistance provided concerning formalities requested before departure.
Entry conditions/visas	Information/assistance provided regarding national procedures, including visas, resident's card/permit, which are required from a researcher/family member in order to legally cross the country border and reside or hold/maintain a position within the territory of a specific country.
Health insurance	Information/assistance provided regarding health insurance.
Intellectual Property Rights	Information/assistance regarding Intellectual Property Rights which are various legal entitlements attached to the product of the mind or the intellect, such as copyrights, designs, patents and trademarks.
Job opportunities	Information/assistance provided to the inquirer about research positions within his/her universities and/or research organisations (in the public and private sector) and job opportunities for a researcher's spouse.
Medical care	Information/assistance provided regarding complementary medical facilities or assistance to the researcher/family.
Pension rights	Information/assistance provided to a researcher regarding pension rights according to national systems and EC rules.
Recognition of diplomas	Information/assistance provided to a researcher and a spouse regarding the equivalence of diplomas/education when moving from one country to another.
Research funding opportunities	Information/assistance regarding available financial support provided by the private or public sector to the researcher in the form of grants, fellowships etc

Research Landscape	Information/assistance provided concerning the what, how, where and when research is conducted at the hosting country/home university.
Taxation/salaries	Information/assistance provided concerning national taxation rules and/or salary (amount, payment etc)
Unemployment	Information/assistance provided to a researcher regarding unemployment rights according to national systems.
Work permit	Information/assistance provided regarding legal authorization which allows a person who does not hold the citizenship of a given country to take employment in it.
HRS4R	HR Excellence in Research. Lund University was certified in 2020 and received HR Excellence in Research Award. Now a huge project is under way, to be reported in September 2022.